BOARD PROFILE

Profile

- I'm an intrapreneur and strategic leader with more than two decades of experience from the financial industry. In my work, I see business as a lever of change and a way to create value monetarily, but also for personal growth and a way to improve society.
- I have led international teams in environments with ever-changing rules and expectations in large international institutions with full p/l responsibility.
- In my leadership roles I have proven to be a dynamic change agent, experienced in organizational transformation, capable of creating value for all stakeholders involved.
- Inspired by my work with Stanford Graduate School of Business, Singularity University, and several Silicon Valley startups, I left the corporate world in 2016 to become an entrepreneur, investor and board member.
- My passion and energy is to build sustainable businesses, solving real problems and meeting actual needs by using technology as enabler.

What I bring to a board:

- With more than two decades in the financial industry, I bring solid financial skills with a good understanding of financial topics such as funding, risk management and investment strategies for all stages of the financial cycle for an organization.
- As an intrapreneur with a proven track record, I will bring experience of how to build successful businesses, alliances and lead international teams to thrive in changing environments.
- A strong international network, where I know what it takes to build long term relationships, creating value for all parties involved.
- Passion and energy to discover innovative solutions, which can be transferred into market opportunities.
- Efficiency and structure
